Herman B. Wells, chancellor of Indiana University and the Very Rev. Paul Reinert, S.J., president of St. Louis University, both emphasized the importance of the dual system (public and private) of education in this country during Diamond Jubilee Commencement Exercises at Saint Joseph's College, Sunday, June 7th.

Saint Joseph's awarded honorary doctor of law degrees to Wells, Father Reinert, the Very Rev. Harold Perry, S.V.D., rector of the Divine Word Seminary at Bay St. Louis, Mississippi and the first negro guest chaplain of Congress; Mrs. Lena F. Edwards, M.D., who founded and operates a clinic for migratory workers in Hereford, Texas; William B. Ansted, Jr., an industrialist from Indianapolis and a member of the Saint Joseph's Board of Lay Trustees for the past ten years; and Fred D. Breit, Evanston, Ill., one of the oldest living alumni of the college who has been a civic and industrial leader, and recently has been active in fund raising for the new diocese of Miami, Florida.

Bachelor of arts and science degrees were awarded to 156 graduates, including the class valedictorian, Lawrence Beuret of Auburn, Indiana.

Wells told the graduates that "higher education would be in a sorry state without private colleges and universities. They help to ensure a diversity of control—which gives both faculty and students a choice, allows for experimentation, and which is essential to freedom.

"I believe a new era is beginning for America—the era of imagination. It may surpass our boldest dreams. With it will come new prosperity, new ways of life, new ways of war and peace. The new individualism of this era will be the individuality of the intellect—and society has the right to ask you to assume position of leadership in the area of intellectual achievement," Wells said.

Father Reinert said that adaptability and stability are the two things needed most in today's dynamic and changing world. "Today, specialized skills are as important as they were in the past, but specialties don't stay put the way they used to. The effort of the faculty here has been to develop you into what is more important than a specialist; it has been to teach you to grasp the realities of the human and natural environment," Father Reinert said. He described the adaptable man or woman as "one who has learned to learn."

Adaptability, however, is not sufficient. "What people want today is meaning in their lives. They need stability, grounded in religious meanings and ethical values. Both teachers and students must be infused with those values that have shaped our educational system," Fr. Reinert said.

Referring to the College's anniversary, Fr. Reinert said that "for 75 years Saint Joseph's has been training young people, with courage, consistency and substantial success. We can look ahead with profit from a short look at what experience teaches us."

Wells, one of the first to suggest that Saint Joseph's establish the College's Calumet Center in East Chicago, Indiana, cited the close ties between himself, Indiana University and the College, and he stated that "Saint Joseph's history is a dramatic symbol of the importance of private education."

Retreat Big Success

June 19, 20, and 21st saw Saint Joseph's alumni return to their alma mater for the First Annual Alumni Retreat.

Father William Shields, C.P.P.S. was the retreat-master and to quote Doctor Louis Abbott, Chairman of the Retreat, "The retreat was excellent. Its excellence was only exceeded by that of the retreat-master. It was the feeling of all those attending that Father Shields did an excellent job and they all hope that he will be available next year. The topics he selected and the talks he gave were very inspiring and made the whole event the excellent retreat it was. I believe his skill and ability at this task was proven when the only comment or suggestion for improving his part of the program was that he talk longer. We all felt like we wanted to hear more each time."

The retreat will be an annual alumni gathering. It is another service that the Alumni Association offers interested alumni. The weekend retreat will continue next year as a calm unhurried three days of spiritual rejuvenation, along with physical and mental rest and relaxation. Plan now to attend in June of '65.

Those registered for the retreat were:

Mr. John M. Walsh, Hazelcrest, Illinois; Mr. W. T. Lynch, Columbus, Ohio; Mr. Joseph E. Walsh, Columbus, Ohio; Mr. Norbert J. Stechschulte, Ottawa, Ohio; Mr. Anthony Baldin, Hammond, Indiana; Mr. Joseph Baldin, Hammond, Indiana; Dr. Louis Abbott, Monticello, Indiana; Mr. Michael J. Ryan, Hazelcrest, Illinois; Mr. Michael T. Alumni V.I.P.'s Plan Year at 3rd Session

For the third straight year the governing body of the Saint Joseph's College Alumni Association met at Rensselaer to map out programs for the coming 64-65 year.

Eighteen Alumni Association Board of Directors, Chapter Presidents and Area Representatives were on campus for this two day meeting.

Four proclamations were acted upon by the assembled alumni representatives. The first was concerned with student recruitment. Father Raphael Gross, C.P.P.S., President of Saint Joseph's College, pointed out once again the crucial problems facing private education and pleaded for help of the alumni in influencing public opinion and more specifically help in the recruitment of talented students. Later in the meeting, Father Frank Spanbauer, C.P.P.S., Director of Admissions for Saint Joseph's, asked for alumni to take part in an Admissions Office sponsored Student Recruitment Seminar to train interested alumni in the various methods of student recruitment. These Lay-Recruiters would implement the staff of the Admissions Office.

The Student Recruitment Seminar was held the weekend of September 12th and eighteen alumni were present representing the Chicago area, St. Louis, Detroit, Toledo, Indianapolis, Monticello and Rensselaer.

The second proclamation was directed to all alumni in this way:

The President of the Saint Joseph's College Alumni Association along with the Directors of the Association direct the attention of every alumnus to the cause of private, church-oriented education in the United States. The President and Board of the Saint Jo-

Hootennany Here Nov. 1

Sports fans, folk music lovers, and jazz enthusiasts are in for a triple treat the weekend of October 31-November 1, when Saint Joseph's features a concert and a football game.

On Sunday at 2 p.m. November 1, a "Folk and Jazz Wing Ding" will be held in the fieldhouse. This student council - sponsored show will feature the Serendipity Singers and the Oscar Peterson Trio in the Ford CARavan of Music.

Admission is $1.00 for students and $1.50 for adults.

After a successful season last year of presenting folk and jazz concerts at the leading colleges of the nation, Ford is again "hitting the road" in their endeavors to bring entertainment to schools.

The nine members of the Serendipity Singers have recorded three L.P. albums, and have appeared on six "Hootennanny" television shows. In view of the definition of "serendipity" meaning "the unexpected discovery of a new and happy event," the group seems to have chosen a most appropriate and descriptive name.

The Oscar Peterson Trio is a trio—not a featured pianist and subdued assistants. It is in this remarkable unity of purpose and expression, that the group best serves itself and jazz.

On Saturday at 2 p.m., Saint Joe's will battle Findlay College of Ohio in a colorful band day celebration.

So bring the family and come on down for a weekend of fun and variety on the Saint Joseph's College campus.

Raising fish has been Dr. Louis A. Abbott's, '50, hobby since he was fourteen years old. A dentist in Monticello, Indiana, and a member of the Alumni Board of Directors, Dr. Abbott spends about six hours of his free time each week in the basement of his home where he keeps his tanks.

His interest in fish began when his father needed a "conversation piece" for his business in Wolcott, Indiana, and tropical fish was chosen. Young Louis found working with them fascinating, and still does. As is the case with most hobbyists interviewed, his wife is also interested and informative on the subject. The doctor's primary interest is in breeding show fish, and the trophies which he has and the multitude of ribbons he has garnered are "proof he has a way with fish."

Dr. Abbott belongs to many fish clubs, and is president of the International Federation of Aquarium Societies, a group of 100 clubs, all but two of them in the United States and Canada. The other 10 are scattered through England and Europe. Dr. Abbott keeps in contact by mail, sending out about 50 pieces of correspondence weekly.

French Teacher Accelerates Course

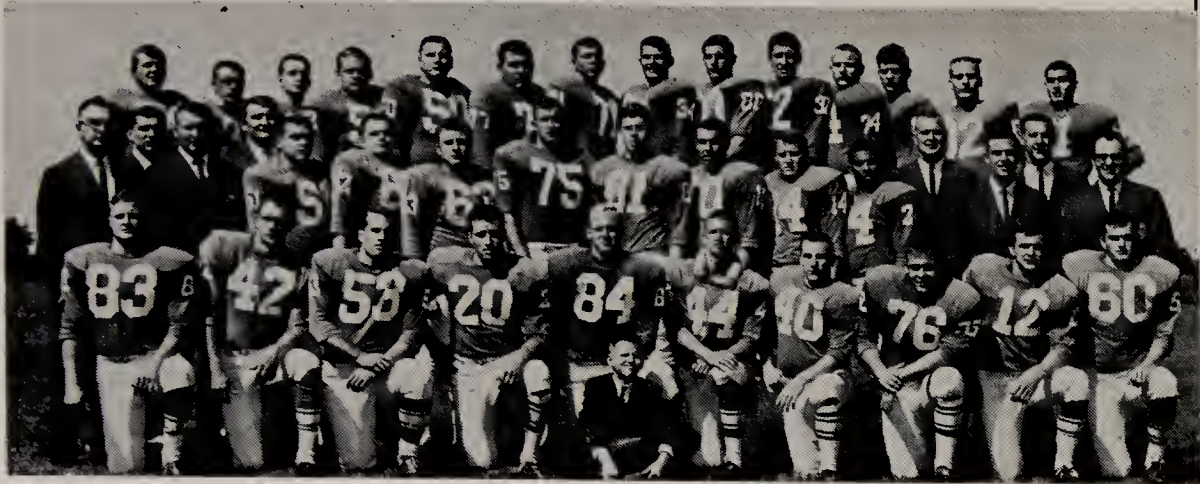

Jim Toepp, '63, has dished out a "mammoth slice of French" to his Rensselaer High School pupils in Rensselaer, Ind., by completing the equivalent of second-year French in an intensive eight-week summer course.

The abundance of so much material in so short a time was accomplished by teaching the pupils, who ranged in age from 14 to 17 years, four hours per day, five days a week, thus completing 160 hours of French.

Besides using tapes and oral drills, Jim also relied upon records, slides and a modern language laboratory to teach the course.

Jim graduated from St. Joseph's with a degree in management. During his junior year, he attended the University of Aix-Marseilles in France.

seph's College Alumni Association feel that every alumnus should be acutely aware of the importance of private education to our country and culture and in particular the Catholic prerogative to preserve Catholic education.

Messages and articles will begin appearing in the fall issues of Contact concerning the dangers to private education and the remedies that alumni can use to combat these dangers.

The third proclamation urges better communication and coordination between the Athletic Department and the Alumni Board of Directors.

The fourth proclamation states that:

Thomas DeMint shall receive the Alumni Service Award for his unselfish giving of time and talent in the production of the two series of Diamond Jubilee Fund Raising Mailings. These mailings not only raised the percentage of participation among alumni givers, but they were also instrumental in the campaign exceeding by thousands of dollars its original goal.

After these proclamations were approved each of the Board Members and Chapter Presidents gave a report on the alumni happenings and programs in the various areas represented.

The importance of seeing Saint Joseph's College in the wide scope of a Catholic college training men for all walks of life was stressed by both Father Gross, President of the College, and Jack McCann, President of the Alumni Association.

Highlights of the reports included Doctor Lou Abbott's thorough report on the success of the Alumni Retreat of which he was chairman; Bill Elberts' concise statements on the over-all excellence of Saint Joseph's College predicated on his observance of and conversation with St. Joe men who complete their student teaching in his high school; and Father Bernie Boff's explanation of the Citizens for Educational Freedom organization and how this organization is handling the problems of privately supported education in the United States.
